ATLANTA MAN WANTED FOR FRAUD, FORGERY

ATLANTA – Insurance and Safety Fire Commissioner John F. King announced today that warrants have been issued for Tyrone Bernard Briscoe, 35, of Atlanta, for one count of Insurance Fraud, 16 counts of 1st Degree Forgery, and one count of False Statements and Writings, Concealment of Facts, and Fraudulent Documents in matters within the jurisdiction of state of political subdivisions. Mr. Briscoe is wanted in connection with a Fulton County case.

“On January 1st, the suspect submitted a burglary claim with his insurance carrier, Lemonade Insurance Company, for $42,524.00,” said Commissioner King. “Upon investigation, it was discovered that Mr. Briscoe submitted several fraudulent invoice receipts, several fraudulent monthly credit card statements, a fraudulent lease agreement, as well as a fraudulent Atlanta Police report.”

Anyone with information on this case should call the Criminal Investigations Division’s warrant line at 404-463-6363.

The warrant was issued on November 3rd by a Fulton County Judge.
